

---

Authors Biography

Global South Review
Vol. 2, No.2, June 2020

Lucke Haryo Saptoaji Prabowo is a social media manager at Institute of International Studies, UGM. He earned his bachelor's degree in International Relations with a focus on International Political Economy at UGM in 2021. His research interests includes international political and economy, international development, and Indonesia's foreign policy. Prabowo has assisted in research such as corporate environmental citizenship transformation in Indonesia's mineral water supply chain, and currently assisting in research about the institutional management of Indonesia Agency for International Development (INDO AID). He can be reached through his email at lucke.h@ugm.ac.id.

Mira Ardhya Paramastri is an Associate Researcher at the Center for Digital Society (CFDS), UGM. She graduated from the Department of International Relations with a summa cum laude in 2020 and is involved with various research projects in the FISIPOL UGM such as "Audit Radio Republik Indonesia" and "Public Service Media and Regulation: Literature Review and Future Researches." As an Associate Researcher in CfDS, Mira has also published online articles through the center's publication which includes "Going Cashless in the "New Normal": Challenges for Indonesia's SMEs" (2020), "Mobile Gaming in Indonesia: Relationships through New Media" (2020), and "WhatsApp as a Platform for Islamic Education in Indonesia: Why is it an Option?" (2020). Mira is interested in the topics of policies, media regulations, digital literacy, culture, and society, and could be seen actively involved in projects of related fields. Mira could be contacted through her e-mail at mira.ardhya.paramastri@mail.ugm.ac.id.

Aloysius Efraim Leonard, or Efraim, is an associate campaigner at Change.org Indonesia. He is an international relations graduate from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan. Efraim's research interest includes public policy, social movement and digital campaigns. Along with Ruth, he co-wrote an article published in Jurnal Sentris about the need for a public-private partnership for education in ASEAN. He can be contacted through aloysiusefraim@gmail.com.

Ruth Latreia Theo Saphira is an undergraduate student of International Relations in Universitas Katolik Parahyangan, Bandung and currently a research intern at CSIS Indonesia. Ruth's research interest includes public policy, foreign policy, international security and regional dynamics of Southeast Asia. Her work on Indonesia and ASEAN's public-private partnership was published in Jurnal Sentris which she co-wrote with Efraim. She can be reached through ruthlatreia@gmail.com

Annisa Kirana Andaneswari received her Bachelor's Degree in political science from University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta and Master's Degree in International Relations from Gadjah Mada University. Her research interest focus primarily on the discipline of International Political Economy and Development Studies. Her publication includes a chapter on a book called "Mengimplementasikan SDGs di Indonesia Kekuatan Kearifan Lokal dalam Pembangunan Berkelanjutan", she wrote one chapter entitled "Kritik terhadap Pembangunan Komersial di Yogyakarta". She received a research grant from Groundup, a water-based research project between Polgov UGM and Delf Institute Netherland. Recently, she is tenured in International Relations Program at University of Nahdlatul Ulama Kalimantan Timur as a lecturer. She continues to do several research on her studies area to support her academic career. She can be reached through her work-related email Annisakirana@unukaltim.ac.id / Annisakirana@mail.ugm.ac.id or Whatsapp +6285742013087.

---

Qonitah Rohmadiena received her Bachelor's Degree in Social Science from Sebelas Maret University and Master's Degree in International Relations from Gadjah Mada University. Her research interest includes International Cooperations and Development, International Political Economy, and East Asian. Studies. During her Master's program, she received a research grant from the faculty. The research ponders around corporate environmental governance. She also participated in some research programs as a research assistant. She can be reached through her work-related email: qonitahr@gmail.com or Whatsapp +6282221734848.

Christou Imanuel is a Sophomore at the Faculty of Law Universitas Indonesia. He is currently a research intern at the Center for International Law Studies and a researcher at the ALSA Indonesia Specialized Research Team. His research interest revolves around international law and international affairs. Previously he has been involved in some research projects with his colleague and lecturer. In mid-2020, he published his research article in an Argentinian Bulletin titled "Completing the Line: Indonesia's Dilemma on Designating the East-West Archipelagic Sea Lanes". Moreover, he also presents his research at several conferences such as the National Seminar on Space and Aviation Policy 2020 and Global South Convention 2020. Recently he published his research with his lecturer in Jurnal Masalah-Masalah Hukum Universitas Diponegoro with their paper discussing the definition of a fishing vessel from the perspective of international convention. He can be reached through his email christoumanuel@gmail.com

Theo Gerald Parluhutan Napitupulu is a Sophomore at Brawijaya University, majoring in International Relations. Currently, he is a Research Assistant for Laboratory of Brawijaya University and a Research Assistant for lecturers in the research, accreditation, and service divisions. He is also a member of the Foreign Policy Community Indonesia Chapter of Brawijaya as Minister of Research and Analysis. His research interest revolves around international political economy, regional issues especially ASEAN, and Indonesia's Foreign Policy. He wrote several articles such as Rights That Need to be Taken Back which were included and published in the book SDG's In Social and Political Science Analysis and was a contributor to the Policy Brief of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences regarding Sexual Violence on Campus. Moreover, he also present his research at several conferences such as the Global South Convention 2020. He can be reached through his email theogerald22@gmail.com.

---